ABOUT US

Sandpaper Academy for Civil services was born in 2019 as an answer writing initiative by the name Sandpaper 1.0 by Asmita Rekha Bora who had already cleared APSC CCE 2019 by then with a rank 9 in Assam Land and Revenue Services. It was a pro bono initiative to help all aspirants to get an insider's perspective during their preparation. Many of the then students are already serving as officers of different services all over Assam today.

With 5 years of successful mentorship, as the demand for authentic guidance increased, Asmita Baa resigned from her service in May 2024 and hence Sandpaper Academy for Civil Services came into an offline reality.

Being a full time educator now, Asmita Baa and her team of excellent faculties now thrive to provide the best and most concentrated coaching for APSC CCE. With more than 50% of Sandpaper Academy's students inside APSC as officers, it only looks ahead in guiding the students through the best possible route.

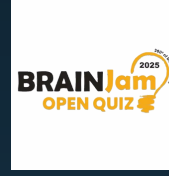

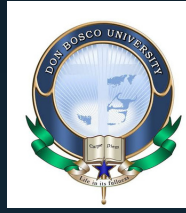

"Civil Services examination is a marathon. A marathon across the desert with no fixed route and no footsteps to follow. I know it is difficult and hence I will be there. With food and water, standing right along the way showing the correct route to finish the marathon."

I have done it and you will do it too.
